Ragweed (Tales From Dimwood Forest)

Synopsis

A mouse has to do what a mouse has to do. Ragweed is determined to see the world. He leaves his family and cozy country home and sets off by train for the big city. What wonders await him: music, excitement, new friends...and cunning, carnivorous cats! Silversides is the purring president of F.E.A.R. (Felines Enraged About Rodents), a group dedicated to keeping cats on top, people in the middle, and mice on the bottom. Can Ragweed and his motley yet musical crew of city nice--Clutch, Dipstick, Lugnut, and Blinker--band together to fight their feline foe?

I am an adult and love children's books. This series was such a joy to read. I rarely read books twice, but I could read this series again. I sent them to my nieces to read. I asked a neighbor girl if she had read them and she just grinned cheek to cheek! It was a very enjoyable series! You must read them in order and I wish the books were marked with a large number, but I hope I have them in correct order: 1 Ragweed, 2 Poppy, 3 Poppy & Rye, 4 Eret's Birthday, 5 Poppy's Return, and 6 Poppy and Eret. My fourth grade teacher was an old Scottish lady and she used to make us put our heads down the last 15 minutes of the day and she would read to us. What a joy that was! This series would be good for that purpose - everyone goes home totally relaxed.

This is an adorable series. We could not get enough of these books- that's including myself along with my 6 year old son. Charming and well written.

Cute book to add to my classroom.

My 8 year old can't get enough of this series!

Granddaughter loved it.

Students live this story and all of the Poppy series.

My Grand daughter is reading the book Poppy in her classroom and this is the first book of the series. She is loving this book, it is action packed and a great book for a third grader.

wasn't a favorite book. hoping to introduce a new series to 9-year-old. it was read but not delighted.
