Joan Suyenaga, born and raised in Honolulu, Hawaii, grew up with Japanese Children's Favorite Stories, the first title in this popular series, on her family bookshelf. She has been writing, translating and editing for the past 20 years in Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Her three children were the first to hear the stories featured in this volume of stories on Indonesia. Artist: Salim Martowiredjo is a well known Indonesian artist and has wonderfully depicted Indonesian rural life in this beautifully illustrated book.

The overall stories are very good. The kindle version has MANY typos that need to be fixed.

Wonderful stories, love reading these to my daughter.

Potentially interesting with a rare collection of stories local children grew up with. Colorful illustrations but need more zest in the writing.

We bought it in the airport in Bali and started reading it right away. My 5-year old daughter and my husband were both very fascinated by the stories. Each story carries its own moral, and has a cultural and geographical value. The illustrations are beautiful.

the book contain is good but it's too boring and the letter is too small for the kids to see. more picture will get the children more excited
