Deanna Csomor McCool is a former newspaper reporter who has practiced arts and crafts since she could tie her shoes. The mother of two daughters, she began sewing bows so that her daughters would feel like princesses. She designs sewing patterns and blogs about ribbon crafts, sewing, quilting and other fiber arts.

I was very displeased to find that this book does not show how to make one of the bows on the cover. That bow was the whole reason I chose to purchase the book, and one would assume that it would have been shown. The pictures and instructions for most of the other bows were very well done.

Super cute ideas for unique bows! Definitely glad I made the purchase!

Beautiful book and easy to follow instructions.

Good book for lessons in ribbon making. I used this book in making rosettes for my granddaughter's wedding. Recommend highly.

Love the book. My daughter has herself a little business now making all the beautiful ribbon pieces.

Love it

Book as described, thanks!

happy with my purchase
