Floating down a lazy river, Benny finds a blackmail scheme in progress.

Gertrude Chandler Warner was born in 1890 in Putnam, Connecticut, where she taught school and wrote The Boxcar Children because she had often imagined how delightful it would be to live in a caboose or freight car. Encouraged by the book's success, she went on to write eighteen more stories about the Alden children.

The Boxcar Children Mysteries are a favorite of children 8 years to 12 years, and older. The children who read the adventures, get so involved, they can hardly wait to get back to the library, to check out the many other volumes. There is no offensive language or suggestions in these books. Just pure adventure and fun for the kids. Written like it was from the 50's. Good for gifts.

My grandchildren love the "Boxcar Children" books. It is nice to have a reliable series of books that you can depend upon to entertain and create a desire in children to read books. I found that the children actually looked forward to receiving a new book in the series.

The Boxcar Children are gifts to my grandson, and he LOVES them.

I love the boxcar children series as it teaches about family, friends, teamwork, and making the best of all that comes our way in life. SHipping was very timely, the book was in great shape, and I appreciate the honesty of the seller.

such nice books!

Good book for the kids

I have to rate the first "big" book I ever read as five stars. I read it twice too. My reading comprehension was still developing. :)
