Master landscape photographer James Randklev has photographed America for thirty years, primarily with a large-format camera that provides the rich images collected in this volume. His brilliant and sensitive work has made him one of the Sierra Club’s most published photographers. His color photographs have appeared in books, periodicals, calendars, and advertising—and they have been exhibited in shows in the United States and abroad. In 1997 he was the sole American chosen to exhibit in the International Exhibition of Nature Photography in Evian, France. In 2003 Randklev was selected to be included a book entitled World’s Top Landscape Photographers—and the Stories Behind Their Greatest Images by Roto Vision Publications, London, England. Randklev’s other photography books include In Nature’s Heart: The Wilderness Days of John Muir; Georgia: Images of Wildness; Wild and Scenic Florida; ; Georgia Simply Beautiful; Olympic National Park Impressions; Florida Impressions; Florida Simply Beautiful; Tucson Impressions; Arizona Impressions; Monterey Peninsula Impressions; and Bryce Canyon National Park Impressions.
