Customer Reviews

VICTOR VILLASEÑOR is the author of Thirteen Senses (Harper-Collins, 2001); Rain of Gold (Arte Público Press, 1991), a national best-seller; the non-fiction Jury: The People vs. Juan Corona (1979); and the novel, Macho! (Arte Público Press, 1973), which was chosen by the New York Public Library for its distinguished list of Books For The Teen Age in 1992. He is also the writer of screenplays, most notably the award-winning The Ballad of Gregorio Cortez.

Great book for kids, specially Hispanic kids. Villasenor is a great author who writes with his heart and being Mexican with great knowledge of his culture.

Splendid! It's going to Ecuador as we speak.
