I miss Doctor Aphra. The droids are fun. This volume finds Darth Vader dealing with a war and royal families on a supply planet. I am so over the other potential apprentices of the Emperor. They're annoying. Queen Trios is a really interesting character. I like the culture of glamour and dukes on this planet. An intensely courtly culture. I give this volume a 3/5. It continues the Darth Vader story, but nothing special happens in this volume. Hopefully the next volume picks up the pace.

Fantastic continuation of the amazing Darth Vader Series, showing Vader going to war with the planet of Shu-Torin on behalf of the Empire, and shows what he is doing to deal with the abduction of a major Vader comic character that occurred during Vader Down.

This arc was just okay for me. I am not personally a huge fan of Cylo and his team of would be Vader replacements. I feel they are throw away characters and weak storytelling. I wouldn't want to see Cylo and his team on the big screen. But that being said I like seeing a new world and as always the Vader action is really good. Rouge One and these comics have really started to give us an understanding of why Vader should be feared.

For Darth Vader Fans it is a must, it fill perfectly the void between the movies and explains a los of the lord of the sith

Some good scenes and lines. Loving the droids. Good overall but weakest volume yet. Still plan on continuing with the series.

A well written Vader with an interesting supporting cast. It fits nicely into Star Wars cannon. I highly recommend to any fan.

Enjoyed this story a lot, Vader waging war on a rebellious planet

Love the series so far, can't wait for the other volumes. This one was a great read and the art is amazing.
