I found a lot of great information in this book. My boys are four and six and we were going through an incredibly tough time since I told them I was pregnant. This book was a life saver. It helped me get my house back in order before our newest bundle arrived. I did feel like the author was talking down to me during some parts and didn't agree with everything. Still, worth the investment.

Great!

I bought this book for my son but I read it also and found it very informative and valuable. Hope he will read it as I am very sure they could make great use of it and their son would benefit greatly from it.

I actually purchased this book for my daughter . We have a ten year old (very tween) and need all the suggestions possible in approaches to "Just Gettin Along". Lots of ideas found.

I'm a licensed psychotherapist and I loan this book out to my clients! It has a lot of practical parenting advice!

If you are having trouble with your kids, read this book! Really good information for fixing a troublesome child or to prevent your child from becoming a brat.
