Hannah C. Hall estimates that she has read approximately 4,500 bedtime stories to her children over the last few years. She is thankful to get to add her own books to their daily rotation. Hannah and her husband, Josh, have five children and live in a small town in Arkansas. Â Â Â Â Â

I bought this for my five year old granddaughter to read to her new baby brother. It is just adorable and sweet with a very gentle story appropriate for young children. The religious part is actually very subtle only mentioning saying bedtime prayers and then ending with God Bless You Goodnight at the very end. That was an important factor because I wanted to encourage the granddaughters belief in God without stepping on the toes of her mother who is not a believer yet. Highly recommended for very young children or older children to read to younger siblings.

bought this for out nephews baptism. Thought it was a very cute book and a good gift for the occasion.

Love love love this book. Started reading to grandbaby when he was very young. I call him Snuggle Bug and Snuggle Bug is mentioned in the book. Sweet pictures and wording. Grandson is now 7 mos old and I read it to him last night.
