This Is That: Travel Guide To Canada

Synopsis

Discover the majesty of Canada - or what the Internet calls one of North America's top three must-visit nations - in this laugh-out-loud, farcical travel guide from the country's most celebrated comedy team, This is That. Have you always wanted to travel Canada, but are fearful of wide open spaces? Are you planning your next Canadian holiday to visit the best strip malls in town? This is That: Travel Guide to Canada will take you on an outrageous and unbelievable journey from coast to coast to coast to coast to coast. Presented in the familiar casing of a traditional travel guidebook - a la Lonely Planet or Rough Guide - This is That: Travel Guide to Canada will teach you how to navigate the 12 petting zoos of Etobicoke and how to avoid pickpockets in Kamloops. You'll learn that the city of Brandon, Manitoba is closed for annual maintenance between July 12 and August 19 and that tipping your server in Swift Current is offensive. This unreal guide also includes essential travel tips, such as useful Canadian phrases to locate the bathroom, the best places to portage, and the most spectacular malls above sea level. CBC Radio One's award-winning satirical program This is That is created by veteran comedians Pat Kelly and Peter Oldring, and produced by Chris Kelly, who use the familiar sound of public radio as a platform for character bits and improvisational comedy. The CBC radio show has engaged audiences across the country and beyond with an acclaimed radio show, podcast, and viral digital content. This is That stories have been covered by Wall Street Journal, Boing Boing, Paste Magazine, New York Magazine, The Guardian, Devour, and more. This is That's live show tour has played to sold out audiences; it will tour back across the country in January and February 2017.

Customer Reviews

Not as funny as the podcast, this book still carries the underhanded humor of the authors. Possibly my favorite part was the map of Canadian regions - beneath the provinces is a big section labelled "You Know Who." That made me laugh out loud. The readings did make me chuckle at times but did not carry the memorable stories that I hear in the podcasts. I HIGHLY recommend checking out the archives of the podcast - they will frequently force you to rethink Canadian humor.

The This is That radio program on CBC is terrific. The individual segments are well-conceived and well-executed. Even the weaker bits are full of whimsy. I would recommend the show with five stars to anyone. This book, on the other hand, is not funny. Not even mildly amusing. It is SO different from the radio program is that I suspect Pat K. and Peter O. hired someone to write it for them. What a disappointment!! I awarded an extra star just because I admire their efforts on the radio. Stick to your knitting, eh?
