Beyond dinosaurs, what strange and powerful creatures lived millions of years ago? Written by a paleontologist, this three-book collection introduces beginning readers to the amazing creatures that lived alongside the dinosaurs, the giant asteroid that may have killed them, and the incredible mammals that ruled the earth after the dinosaurs died.

Paleontologist Charlotte Lewis Brown writes about science for children and adults. Dr. Brown lives in Seattle, Washington. Artist Phil Wilson specializes in depicting prehistoric life and consults with great book, gives parents and kids pronunciation keys for the dino names, which is super helpful to mom. :-) for dino lovers, this set is a must have!

My kid LOVED this book set! He memorized all of it. We read them for bed regularly.

I have 2 boys, 8 & 5, they love these books.

I bought these for my almost kindergartener to 'grow into' as he learns to read. The Day the Dinosaurs Died was the hands down favorite --think historical fiction for dinosaur loving littles. The other two will work better when he is a more independent reader, I think. Very motivating books to promote early reading, lots of educational value in the content, too. Plus, a jumping off place for even more science (space, weather, ecosystems, reptiles vs mammals, even tsunamis).

very nice . fast and in time, I have owned many knives over the years, but this is the first real" bread product that I have ever owned. I really like the construction and design. It works exactly as advertised. I have used it on bread and tomatoes and it did the job perfectly well. I would recommend this product to anyone who needs a quality bread product." my brother like it , professional service.

My 4 year old really liked these, and it encouraged his reading considerably.
