Brilliant book that gives a great insight into the real Jake Hess, and to the birth of quartets and Gospel music in the white community. This book reveals Jake's restless nature and his constant pursuit for perfection despite crushing health problems. This is a must for any Jake or Gospel fan.

I bought this for my husband for Christmas. He was raised on Southern Gospel music and he loved the book. He could hardly put it down.

If anyone is a fan of Jake Hess, this is a very informative book. There are some funny stories about things that had happened while touring and there are stories about his health battles. A must have for Jake Hess fans.

A must have for any Jake Hess fan, read it in two days! Very insightful.
