Guns Of The NRA National Sporting Arms Museum

Synopsis

Guns of NRA National Sporting Arms Museum features the most common and popular sporting arms in America pictured side-by-side with some of the greatest firearm rarities, including:-Historic arms owned and used by Presidents, Olympic champions, Medal of Honor recipients, European royalty, and the lawmen and outlaws of the Old West.-Great guns and art from the Remington factory collection.-The finest examples of firearms engraving and custom guns.-Prototype and one-of-a-kind guns, including bizarre firearm curios. These guns reflect the three-part theme of the NRA National Sporting Arms Museum at Bass Pro Shops:HUNTING: A timeline of four centuries of hunting arms in America including the primitive arms of the earliest explorers and settlers, buffalo guns, early repeaters, and long rifles and plains rifles, along with more modern arms from the classic bolt action rifles and pump shotguns of the 20th century through the most modern AR type and other semi-auto guns of today.CONSERVATION: The story of the conservation movement in America, highlighted by the guns of Theodore Roosevelt and company.FREEDOM: American military arms from the 1770s through the 21st century.They all are from the collection of America's most-visited firearms museum, which welcomed over one million visitors in its first three and a half years of operation.

Very nice book with information I had never heard before. Quality pictures throughout.

you get to see firearms at their best with great photography

Great book! Husband very impressed. Visit to museum next on list!

Great photos in this book. It is almost like being in the museum.

GREAT INFORMATION INSIDE THIS BOOK

Could be more history with the pictures.
