The Mikado: Easy Piano Picture Book (Faber Edition)

Synopsis

Ever since its premiere just over a century ago, The Mikado has consistently held the stages as one of the world's best-loved comic operas. The story tells how Nanki-Poo, son of the Mikado, overcomes all opposition to marry his sweetheart Yum-Yum. On the way he encounters such unforgettable characters as Ko-Ko, the timid tailor unexpectedly promoted to the rank of Lord High Executioner, and Pooh-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, who is so proud that he refuses to lift a finger - except on payment of a small fee . . . This exquisitely illustrated Easy Piano Picture Book incorporates easy-to-play versions of the most famous songs from the show including Three Little Maids from School, The Moon and I and Tit-Willow. It will delight Gilbert and Sullivan fans of all ages.

Customer Reviews

Fantastic arrangements of these favorite songs! Gorgeous illustrations and excellent telling of the Mikado story. Due to my family's long-time obsession with Gilbert & Sullivan, I give a copy of this book to each new niece and nephew. I just wish Faber also offered a Pirates of Penzance!
