Founded in 1947, Hal Leonard LLC has become the worlds largest print music publisher, representing some of the greatest songwriters and artists of all time. We are proud to publish titles of interest to all musicians as well as music lovers, from songbooks and instructional titles to artist biographies and instrument price guides to books about the music industry and all the performing arts.

My son (8) is just beginning to learn how to write his own music. This notebook is the right format and the staff is the right size - neither babyish nor intimidating.

(I Like the shape of this one over the yellow cover one, but thats me lol.)Bought as a gift for a Music Student in my life, and it ways exactly what it says it was- Manuscript paper. Good price, comparable to local places around me that sell it, but I do wish it had a tad bit more pages. Will be buying again when he needs more.

I purchased few of these books to sketch down musical phrases and I was a bit surprised when I noticed that the stave is a bit wider than I thought. There is some basic music theory reference inside the cover (front and back). It would be a perfect choice for kids to teach them notational conventions very clearly. If you are looking for a similar book with spiral bind, try searching 'Wide Staff Spiral Bound Manuscript Paper 6 Stave' which is also from HLC.

My daughter has LOVED this book! She is new to piano lessons and seemed a little intimidated when her teacher asked her to compose her own songs. I got her this book and she really loved the idea of having her own book of her music. She got really creative and composed some great songs! She even recently performed an original piece at her recital! :-)

I am an experienced piano teacher and i use this simple and clean looking booklet with big enough line-distance to comfortably write a view melody lines down and teach some music theory.

Inside cover has the notes on both staves with their names as well and note measures. This notebook exceeded my expectations. It's perfect.

I bought this as a Christmas gift for my daughter who is learning piano. She loves it and had been writing her own music with it. Glad that I purchased it and will be purchasing it again.

I love this musical manuscript paper. First off, it is wide staffed so there is less space per page, but logically anyone purchasing this should realize that. It lays very nicely on a music stand so the pages don't close up on you. Also, on an odd note, I love the square shape of the book. Personally why I love it: As someone who played piano for most of their childhood, I wanted to see if I could get back into music as an adult so I picked up the violin. However my note writing skills had become subpar, so the wide staffing on the paper made it easy to correct mistakes and add missed notes.
