all-purpose flour 1 t. baking powder 1/4 t. salt 2 t. ground ginger 1 t. cinnamon 1/2 t. allspice

In a large bowl, combine all ingredients except garnish. Beat with an electric mixer on medium speed for about 30 seconds, until well combined. If batter is too runny, add a little more flour; if it is too dry, add a little more milk. Place greased metal cookie cutters onto a hot griddle over medium heat; slowly pour batter into cutters. Cook on first side about 10 minutes. Turn over pancakes and cutters; cook on other side for about 5 minutes. Carefully remove pancakes from cookie cutters. Serve with maple syrup or powdered sugar. I have just about every Gooseberry Book made, I just did not like this one. For me there are not enough recipes that I want to try or I have already made something like it. Gooseberry is still the best cookbooks around, just not my choice this Christmas.

I own many Gooseberry Patch Books and this one is one of my favorites! I have made several recipes out of the book and they all have been great! I highly recommend the bacon wrapped pork tenderloin and the red and green breakfast casserole. There is something for everyone and even has cute little stories and tricks at the bottom of each page.

As with all Gooseberry Patch cookbook...another good one!!! Nice recipe not only for the holidays. Love the country drawings and little hints on some of the pages.
