Customer Reviews

Christmas, that time of good cheer and lapsed diets, is the perfect holiday to showcase the cooking of Food Network star Deen (Paula Deen Celebrates!), who specializes in the kind of butter-and-cheese-laden fare that epitomizes family-style comfort food. Sweets and snacks account for most of the recipes, since Deen happily admits to never varying from her Christmas dinner menu, which centers on a Standing Rib Roast and features a trio of potato dishes, including some unbelievably decadent Crème Fraîche Mashed Potatoes. Cooks will find the cookies and desserts familiar but richer, like eyebrow-raising but delicious Chocolate Cheese Fudge and creamy Chocolate Sandwich Cookies. Snacks and breakfast dishes are crowd pleasers, like gooey Praline French Toast Casserole and Cheese-coated Bacon Wraps. Devoted viewers of Deen's show may miss the sound of her warm drawl narrating the process, but the smattering of glowing family photos and anecdotes about her grown kids and recent marriage, though she's told them before, are decent stand-ins. Several pages of baking hints are included, but most of the recipes are simple and straightforward enough, with readily available ingredients, that even novices should be able to put together a generous Christmas spread. Paula Deen is the bestselling author of thirteen books and an Emmy Award-winning Food Network television star. She was born and raised in Albany, Georgia. She later moved to Savannah, where she started The Bag Lady catering company. The business took off and evolved into The Lady & Sons restaurant, which is located in Savannah's historic district and specializes in Southern cooking. She also co-owns Uncle Bubba's Oyster House with her brother. Paula publishes a bimonthly magazine, Cooking with Paula Deen, and is a regular guest on QVC, where she sells her books and food products.

I have always loved Paula Deen as I follow her website, Television shows, and other websites that consist of her videos and recipes.

I love anything Paula Deen and I love all of her recipes. This book is filled with Christmas stories and recipes. I've cooked a lot of Paula's recipes and being from the South they fit into what I'm used to eating and how I love to cook. No complaints here about using real butter and whole milk.

Great Recipes

I enjoyed the recipe selections and have tried 2 so far. Very nice. Paula's Ultimate Oatmeal Cookies and Mama's Eggnog will definitely be on my table this Christmas. I really enjoy her stories with the recipes. I purchased this book to have some new recipes for the coming holidays and instead, I found a really cool way to begin something new. I and my daughter who is married herself are going to make a collection of our favorite recipes this Christmas and put stories with them to pass along to her daughter. I recommend that you purchase this book, it will help you on your quest to begin your own recipe story.

Even through all the controversy I have always loved Paula Deen and her recipes. She reminds me of my Texan great aunt who was also a great southern cook. I treasure her recipes.

This book is wonderful, with stories about Christmas at the Deen household. The recipes are great for the holiday season, easy to follow, with common ingredients. I love Paula Deen, her everyday insight into cooking and family.

I like the recipes in this book. They're easy to make and very familiar to those that I've enjoyed throughout the years. However, I was expecting the book to be a bit larger. This book is very small; but her personal stories make it a very good book. A good addition to my collection.

Love love love this! Have staple recipes I make every Christmas from this book!
