Founded in 1947, Hal Leonard Corporation has become the world's largest print music publisher, representing some of the greatest songwriters and artists of all time. We are proud to publish titles of interest to all musicians as well as music lovers, from songbooks and instructional titles to artist biographies and instrument price guides to books about the music industry and all the performing arts. --This text refers to the Paperback edition.

Very helpful for beginner players! Any book from Hal Leonard will be great for whatever instrument you play! I started out on the clarinet and bought a clarinet book from them. The book gives you about 200 songs to play and fingering charts to help the beginner! Very nice experience!

I decided to try playing the tenor saxophone recently. When my daughter began playing the French horn a few years ago, this is the book her teacher started all of the students out on so I figured it would work for what I needed. I was right. It has fingerings and little songs to play to learn on. It was exactly what I was looking for.

Helpful I am using this to my classes

Very slow introduction to playing the tenor. The book goes with a class I am taking. The class goes the speed of the book, so the slowness of the book is OK. Pretty basic, but gets the new player started.

Tenor Sax required music book for band. More affordable than local music store. Son needed it for 1st year of band (5th grade).

Good book for learning, it's easy to use and understand. My daughter is getting better every day.

I use this for myself and our school district does as well. These are well laid out great books for the beginning student. It along with a good teacher will get the beginning player off to a great start. The play along CD is excellent. If your teacher has a code you can also use the sign-in and get more on-line materials.
