Du Côté De Chez Swann ("€ La Recherche Du Temps Perdu" Lu Par De Grands Acteurs 1)

Synopsis

Du côté de chez Swann est à la fois l'ouverture de toute l'œuvre, et un roman complet, pourvu d'une conclusion, certes provisoire, mais dont la dissolution peut paraître, qui ne lirait pas plus loin, le dernier mot de La recherche. Customer Reviews

I read this years ago when in college but have used my French very little since, although I was once a fluent reader. Deciding to brush up for an intended trip to Europe, I was happy to find this free Kindle version. I looked for a good Kindle version French-English dictionary to accompany it but was not able to find one, only English-French; but on January 1, 2013, Collins is coming out with one that will sync with the Kindle, making it easy to translate words and idiomatic phrases. C'est un fait accompli! Reading A La Recherche Du Temps Perdu (usually translated as Remembrance of Things Past: of which this is just the first book) in its entirety, however, is a challenge (it took me nearly a year!) and a test to one's stamina if you're not a native or fluent speaker. But it's worth the effort because Proust is one of the world's great, master writers whose innovative approach to writing a novel changed world literature. I am a writer myself and I am convinced that reading and re-reading those long (but perfect) paragraphs in Proust's books helped shape me into a better writer. Remembrance of Things Past is much more than a book: it is a doorway, not just one through which we can enter to view the lives of its main characters, but one by which we can experience an entire community and culture from the past. If you get through Du Côté de Chez

Swan, don't stop. You can download Proust's entire novel for free with Prime on Kindle. Check it out!MOD

I am uncertain as to what people want from a book. This is a free copy of Swann's Way in French. it is excellent for students learning French (assuming they've read Proust and can piece things together). Even, pronunciation-wise, it is great for reading aloud. Moreover, it is...this book is quite sad when you read it untranslated. Sad in a strange way that I don't have the energy to articulate. I would recommend this to ANYONE, particularly students of the French language who want to see what genius looks like in its original form.

classic classic masterpiece best read in French, well worth the effort, amazing piece of fiction and prose not to be missed

Honestly, I can't much complain- this is a free edition of a classic text. There are some spelling and grammatical errors, but nothing too awful. Unlike some free kindle books, it is readable.

Don't be afraid of the supposed difficulty of Proust: just allow yourself to flow with the beauty and simplicity of words and you'll become a different reader after meeting Proust.

Love it

Easy to get on my Kindle and to transport it everywhere. Rapid download to all my connected electronics. And you cannot go wrong with free and in French.

Supreme literature!
