Customer Reviews

"From the start, this book had me! Warning: a few tears may be shed, so keep a tissue handy." -- Eman Hassaballa, April 16, 2002 "I've never read anything like this before. The intensely passionate protagonists have forever won my respect and admiration!" -- Khadija Mohiuddin, April 16, 2002

I found this book at Powell's Bookstore in Portland. I teach reading at the college level and was looking for an easy book for my Middle Eastern students who are still learning English. It doesn't have much action so might be a slow read for American students, but I gave it to a student from Iraq and he loved it. It does have some typos and grammatical mistakes, but it is a nice story of a poor boy who gets an opportunity to become successful through the kindness of strangers.
