Here is the full text of the Saint's story in question:"Peter Claver was a Spanish Jesuit. He was sent to Cartagena in South America where he spent forty years in this great slave market of the West Indies, laboring for the salvation of African Negroes. He consecrated himself by vow to the salvation of those ignorant and miserable people, and he called himself "the slave of the slaves." He was their apostle, father, physician, and friend. When news arrived of a slave ship coming into port, Peter would go on board at once and bring comfort to his dear slaves. He fed and clothed them and nursed them with the greatest tenderness in their ugly diseases. It is said that he baptized forty thousand Negro slaves before he went to his reward in 1654. Peter would say, "We must speak to them (the Negroes) with our hands by giving before we try to speak to them with our lips." He organized charitable societies among the Spanish people in Cartagena just as St. Vincent de Paul did in Paris. Prayer: O God, You conferred on St. Peter Claver a remarkable love and patience to help Your enslaved people and bring them to a knowledge of Your Name. Through his intercession, help us to seek equality for all races."

Just what my mother needed for her catechism classes.

Great for my Kindergarten class!

I bought this for my son for his First Communion. The stories are well done and the artwork is beautiful. I would recommend it.

We bought these for our First Communion Class this year. They were perfect! Nice soft cover with pictures and easy to read short stories about the saints.

A classic gift for a god father to a god daughter. My niece loves when I read from it to her and I love watching her soul grow.

I had this book when I was younger and it has proven to be an excellent source of saint information. It is accurate and short for children to understand what exactly each saint is known for. I would definitely suggest this book to others.

Had this book as a child and bought it for our sons. A great beginners book for getting to know the saints.
