Synopsis

Read by Native French Speaker, Monique Gregory; A novella for 3rd year high school students. A 16 year-old American boy wants to enter a photography contest. He goes to French Guyana to visit his aunt's family. While there, he must deal with various culturally challenging situations. On a day trip he meets Carmen, a girl with exceptional eyes. He wants to photograph her, especially because he thinks he can win a contest with a photo of her, butâ |

Veronica Moscoso is an Ecuadorian writer who has traveled around the world and now lives in California. She has worked as a teacher, a journalist, an advertising copy writer, an editor and a radio producer. She is a keen observer of humanity. Her first book, titled Historias con sabor a sueÃ o, was published in Ecuador. --This text refers to the Paperback edition.

I enjoyed this book. It was very easy reading. Unfortunately, I don't think it is appropriate for my French class, since we are more advanced. But for beginning French students, this would be a great choice. The story keeps your interest and it is well written.

Excellent service. I would patronize again.

This is a simple reader for a beginning French language student. Worth the price.
