We got this book to help entertain our 9 & 7 year old kids while hiking in Rocky Mountain National Park. This book was helpful, although it is detailed enough that you might be tempted to have it out the entire time while on your hike. We chose not to do that, but instead to read up either the night before on the drive to the trailhead, and just remember whatever we could remember. Our kids were sniffing butterscotch ponderosa pines and getting the sunscreen off of aspen trees the whole trip. Easy way to make hiking more interesting.

We just returned from Rocky Mountain National Park on a family vacation. I was worried that my kids, ages 11 and 12, would be bored with hiking, so I ordered this book and took it with us. It was great! My kids were really into finding the listed items in the scavenger hunt and even wanted to take pictures of items so we'd have the proof. They didn't want to miss out on getting any of the points. It was educational for all of us. We even found the little Meadow Mountain Cafe that is described in the book. Awesome place to eat breakfast!
