Love Them In: The Life And Theology Of D L Moody

Synopsis

Who was D. L. Moody? A man with no formal education. A shoe salesman turned evangelist. Many books tell the story of the great man of God who began a Sunday school, a Bible school, and a publishing company. But Stanley Gundry goes beyond the biographical data to give a development of Moody's theology, which was neither systematic nor consciously set forth. So why look at Moody's theology? Because of the great influence he wielded and the place he occupied in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. Moody led thousands to Christ during his preaching career, despite his lack of formal theological training. Might we learn something from this great man? Take a look with Stanley Gundry at the man, his life, and his preaching. Step into the mind of D. L. Moody and discover how his thoughts about his God drove his influential ministry.

Another nightstand selection by Jim Cymbala. Having read his two previous books, I find his writings to be both educational and spiritually uplifting. A must for every Christian, every pastor and for those searching for answers.
