Alone With Him: A First Time Step Fantasy

Synopsis

I didn't realize until it happened just how much I wanted him. I wasn't supposed to want him. He was the man who raised me after all, the one man who was most definitely supposed to be off-limits. But maybe that was why I couldn't stop thinking about him. Maybe that was why every time I turned around I was fantasizing about what it would be like to be in his arms, what it would feel like to be taken by him for the very first time. Lucky for me, life has a way of delivering what you want most, sometimes even if you don't even know you want it. So that's how we found ourselves alone in the woods, thirty miles from home, our bodies pressed together in a tent as the two of us struggled to stay warm. What happened next was only natural...
